

GPSA Appropriations Committee Initiative Fund (AIF) Initiative Statement

1 Section I: Introduction

2
3 The Graduate and Professional Student Association (GPSA) at Cornell University understands
4 the significance of diversity, equity, and inclusion within our academic community. Through the 5 Diversity and Inclusion Initiative, GPSA endeavors to ensure every Cornell Graduate and 6 Professional student finds a university environment where they feel acknowledged and 7 welcomed.
8

9 Section II: Initiative

10
11 This initiative's core objective is to promote diversity and establish an inclusive campus
12 atmosphere for all students. This is achieved by actively supporting student organizations that
13 resonate with these principles and actively promoting diversity in thought, race, gender 14 expression, and other facets.
15

16 Section III: Initiative Details

17
18 GPSA AIF will allocate an additional $200 in funding to those that meet specific criteria. These 19 criteria emphasize both diversity in leadership and a demonstrated commitment to diverse
20 initiatives:
21

22 1. Support for Diverse Initiatives:

- 23 a. Clear evidence of the organization’s commitment to promoting diversity and 24 inclusion.
- 25 b. A track record of events, projects, or activities that support and celebrate 26 various perspectives, including race, gender expression, cultural backgrounds,
27 thought, and more.

28 2. Willingness to Bridge Gaps:

- 29 a. Efforts to encourage collaboration and understanding among diverse student 30 organizations.
- 31 b. A proactive approach to creating spaces for dialogue, cooperation, and idea 32 exchange among varied student groups.

33 3. Affiliation with Graduate or Professional School:

- 34 a. The organization must be affiliated with a graduate or professional school
35 within Cornell University.
- 36 b. The Student Organization must also receive GPSAFC Tier funding and 37 register with Cornell Campus Activities.

38 Section IV: Application Process

39

40 Graduate Student organizations interested in applying for the additional $200 funding under this
41 initiative must submit their application to the AIF chair, which must include the following
42 components:

43

44 1. Introduction and Purpose of the Organization:

45 a. Provide an overview of the organization, its mission, and how it contributes to 46 diversity and inclusion within the graduate or professional school community.

47 2. Initiatives Supporting Diversity:

48 a. Describe specific initiatives and events the organization organizes that
49 promote diversity in thought, race, gender expression, etc.

50 3. Community Engagement and Collaboration:

51 a. Detailed efforts were made to create community spaces and foster
52 collaboration among diverse student groups.

53 4. Leadership Diversity:

54 a. Highlight the organization's commitment to diversity in leadership positions,
55 including information on current leadership roles and their diversity regarding 56 thought, race, gender expression, etc.

57 Section V: Evaluation and Selection

58

59 The AIF Chair will meticulously review all applications based on the abovementioned criteria.
60 Student Organizations that meet these criteria and demonstrate a robust commitment to diversity
61 and inclusion will be granted the additional $200 funding.

62

63 Section VI: Recipient Expectations

64

65 Student Organizations granted the funds are required to attend monthly AIF meetings. These
66 meetings are a platform for Student Organizations to share their recent initiatives and events
67 related to diversity. They also offer an opportunity for groups to suggest actionable steps that 68 GPSA can undertake to further its mission.

69

70 Section VII: Conclusion

71

72 GPSA implores all qualifying student organizations to actively participate in the Diversity and 73 Inclusion Initiative. Through collective effort, we aim to cultivate an enriched academic 74 experience, fostering a sense of belonging and equity within the Cornell graduate and 75 professional student community.
